STATE'S FIRE TOLL LOWEST

California Sets Record Throughout Nation for Smallest Losses in Blazes

WASHINGTON, June 10. (Exclusive)—If fire losses throughout the entire United States were at the same per capita rate which has obtained in California cities over a period of several years, the national fire losses would be reduced more than one-half and annual savings of more than $200,000,000 effected, according to a survey published today by building engineers here.

Total fire losses in the United States insured and uninsured during 1925, the latest year for which statistics are available, were $447,588,000, or a per capita loss of $2.55. This is almost double the per capita loss of $1.25 reported for any of the California cities and more than ten times as great as the lowest loss in the United States, $0.25. As California builds of wood more freely than other states, except possibly Washington and Oregon, its low fire loss cannot be attributed to masonry construction, as is usual in explaining the small fire losses of Europe.

SANTA BARBARA LOWEST
Santa Barbara had in 1925 a per capita loss of only 41 cents, the lowest per capita loss of the California cities, and one of the lowest in the United States. Three other California cities, San Jose, Stockton and Berkeley, had losses of less than $1 per capita, while Alameda, Fremont, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Oakland, Pasadena, Riverside and Sacramento all were under $2 per capita. San Diego was highest with a per capita loss of $2.51, unusually high as compared with $1.54 and $1.55 in the preceding years but still more than 50 per cent under the national average.

According to the National Lumber Manufacturers' Association's engineering report, 1925 fire losses in California cities were fairly representative of the entire country.

Sudden Squall Drowns Six in Minnesota Lake

CHAMPAIGN (Minn.), June 10. (AP)—Six persons, including five men and one woman who were fishing in Lake Minnetonka, near Garrison, thirty miles north of here, last night, drowned when a sudden squall struck the group. The bodies of the victims were recovered this morning.

Those drowned were John (Buck) McKelvey, proprietor of a feed-house near St. Paul; John McKelvey, former policeman of St. Paul; William Bauer, hotel proprietor of Garrison; Oscar Larson, son of Peter Larson, proprietor of a feed-house at Garrison; Mrs. Mary Miller, 51 years of age, St. Paul; and an unidentified youth.

Garrison is an inland village and lake communication with the place was interrupted. Men were sent to Brainerd and Champlin for physicians and paramedics to take care of those rescued.

Half a dozen fishing boats were caught in the storm. They capsized when struck by waves which were described as six to ten feet high.

VAN ORMAN BALLOON VICTORY NOW OFFICIAL

WASHINGTON, June 10. (AP)—The National Aeronautical Association today officially credited W. T. Van Orman and his assistant, W. W. Norton, with victory in the recent national balloon race which started from Akron. They flew the entry of the Akron chapter of the Aeronautical Association, covering 718 miles before landing one mile southwest of Hancock, Me.

Dr. Larkin also was involved in a controversy which arose over non-denominational churches.

Plans for a $100,000 non-denominational church in Yosemite Valley were about to be introduced before the convention when Dr. Larkin's statement to the delegates designed to show that "out of 1000 community churches in the United States, only 187 are non-denominational."

The non-denominational church is a failure, Dr. Larkin contended. Dr. M. H. Guy of Berkeley accused Dr. Larkin of not being pure of his faith. Dr. Larkin declared he was and added that non-denominational community church was not a religious organization.

Further controversy was halted when Fred Parr, president, introduced Dr. J. L. Corley of San Francisco, who spoke on religious education in California.

NEW ERA IN BROADCAST PREDICTED

Wave Allotments Expected to Open Way for Ending of All Interference

WASHINGTON, June 10. (Exclusive)—Confidence that the allocations of frequencies and power outputs which become effective on June 15 will end the chaos which now exists and tend toward the development of radio broadcasting was expressed by the Federal Radio Commission yesterday. A general order issued by the commission today provides for public hearings of complaints of interference by stations which may be observed after the new allocations become effective.

In a statement issued with the order, the commission asserts that the problem of interference cannot be solved fully on the basis of theoretical measurements, pointing out that interference between stations depends largely on geographical conditions and the transmission characteristics of individual stations.

"Accordingly," the statement continues, "the only way in which interference can be adequately tested is by actual experience. Furthermore, this experience cannot be had on conditions prevailing at different seasons of the year. Two stations which may not interfere with one another at all in the summer may cause very serious interference in the late fall or winter."

The statement continues that during the next months when the commission will have complete control of radio broadcasting, its chief purpose will be to improve radio reception throughout the country by the elimination of interference by stations as the interference becomes apparent under the new allocation system.

ROTARY CONVENTION IN OSTEND ADJOURNS

OSTEND (Belgium) June 10. (AP)—The eighteenth annual convention of Rotary International adjourned today after the installation of the new officers elected yesterday. Arthur Sapp of Huntington, Ind., the new president, delivered a short address, as did the other officers.

YOUNG CENTER OF CHURCH TIF

Resolution Praising Governor Tabled by Federation

Dr. Larkin, Los Angeles, Scores State Chief

Boxing and Unclean Films Draw Convention Ire

SAN FRANCISCO, June 10. (Exclusive)—Acrimony became so pronounced when a resolution was introduced at the annual convention of the State federation of churches today in commemoration of Gov. Young that the motion was tabled in a debate of discussion and its purpose belittled the meeting.

Rev. Thomas Philbin proposed a resolution commending the State's executive for "his approval of humane and constructive business legislation."

HINTS OF INFLUENCE
In an immediate outburst, Rev. P. M. Larkin of Los Angeles, secretary of the federation, gained the floor and said:

"There is a report that the Bank of Italy spent $500,000 to win for Gov. Young the seat 10,000 majority by which he decided. He was elected for a definite economic reason. There are powerful men in the church who would bribe at such a resolution."

He offered an amended resolution eliminating the reference to "constructive business" and retaining the portion referring to humanitarian legislation, among them new criminal laws, better enforcement of laws for narcotic usage and the care of addicts.

LEGISLATURE PRaised
"Gov. Young is a church member," retorted Mr. Philbin. "We have in him one of the best governors the State has had in years. We had a fine Legislature."

"If a church organization cannot voice its approval of moral legislation enacted by the Legislature and signed by the Governor without a cry of partisan politics, we had better close our doors."

"In view of the criticism implied in a paragraph in a recent issue of the Federal News, it seems only right that we should voice our approval of Gov. Young."

PRICES FIGHTING DEPRECIATED
The article objected to, it was explained, dealt with the reported failure of a group of church men to get through committee a bill for religious education outside public school buildings.

Resolutions were passed deprecating price fighting; urging the stimulation of industry and handicrafts from motion-picture films and theatrical entertainments; and disapproving the advertising of tobacco for women and girls.

An endorsement of the activity of the Federation of Churches of Christ in America for advocacy of peaceful settlement of Mexican problems was voted, as well as a message of sympathy to the people of Chile on the recent death of his wife in Los Angeles.

ANOTHER CONTROVERSY
Dr. Larkin also was involved in a controversy which arose over non-denominational churches.

Plans for a $100,000 non-denominational church in Yosemite Valley were about to be introduced before the convention when Dr. Larkin's statement to the delegates designed to show that "out of 1000 community churches in the United States, only 187 are non-denominational."

WOMAN ALMOST IN SHIPWRECK ON SOUTH SEA REEF

SAN FRANCISCO, June 10. (AP)—A narrow escape from wrecking upon a coral reef, the constant menace of south sea mariners, was the latest experience of Miss Viola Irene Cooper, New York writer, who with Miss Jean Schoon, sailed for the south sea last September in search of adventure and literary material. Previously, she had gathered a large number of potential stories by hobnobbing with former cannibals of the New Hebrides.

In a letter received here today, Miss Cooper relates that only by the merest chance did the vessel in which she was the only woman member of the crew, avoid piling up on a huge coral island that lies directly on the line of ships bound from Sydney to Noumea, New Caledonia. Their vessel, having plunged and struggled for three days and two nights through a storm that whipped the sea to mountainous proportions, was within two miles of the reef and headed directly for it, on the third night. Then the moon came out for the first time during the voyage and revealed their grave danger. Swiftly, the ship turned her course and dodged the reef with its ghostly rocks and frothing breakers was behind.

Miss Cooper, now a midshipman aboard the Commandant D'Armenant, is due at Oakland next Tuesday.

GREAT STORE OPENS TODAY

Parmelee-Dohrmann Will Hold Reception to Show Patrons Treasures of Art Work

The handsome new store of the Parmelee-Dohrmann Company will be open today to the public, a formal reception taking place at the hours of 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. During this time, the entire eight-story building will be open for inspection, and the event will take on the nature of a house-warming.

The Parmelee-Dohrmann Company has been identified with the business progress of Los Angeles and since the earliest days, when business centered around the Plaza, where this company was located in an adobe building at the corner of Spring and First streets, has been known for high-class home ware and for business integrity.

RARE TREASURES
The new store, which is declared to be the largest of its kind in the world, is in the latest mode, both as to construction and elegance. The equipment is such as to facilitate business to the nth degree and the public will, doubtless, be most interested in viewing these arrangements.

Rare wares from all parts of the world will be displayed and will include a full range of Cremonese, Italian pottery and exceptional marbles from noted sculptors. Examples of art treasures from the collections of monarchs, from historic sets possessed by Presidents of the United States and famous museum pieces will be shown to visitors, today. One sumptuous piece, lent from the Metropolitan Museum, is a Lenox creation, a crown of a dozen emeralds, valued at $12,000. The plate shown is in diamond, or banquet size, the center a clear opalescent white, bordered in gold leaf, having the effect of a deep carving.

MODEL KITCHEN
There is a model kitchen, with every modern appliance, a floor devoted to table service with tables correctly laid for all occasions, from the simplest to most ornate, and a distinctive section named the "Treasure Trove," wherein are housed rare objects of art value.

In addition to the eight stories of the main store, there is a spacious downstairs store, where will be found wares of lesser cost, the best of additional space permitting prices here lower than ever before. This will in reality be a store in itself, where price tables, for gift wares and those for usual use, may easily be chosen, according to the demands of beach and resort cottages and cabins and for smaller homes.

A full description of the Parmelee-Dohrmann store, which is located at 741 South Flower street, will appear in the Sunday Times.

SENTENCE SUSPENDED ON MOTHER

Woman Convicted of Being Cruel to Four Children; Called Mentally Immature

MARTINEVILLE, June 10. (AP)—Mrs. Grace Stone, 35 years of age, charged with assault and battery following brutal treatment of her four children and the "hanging" of her oldest daughter, was convicted in court here yesterday and sentenced to thirty days in jail. Sentence was suspended. The children were taken from their parents and placed in better homes. Frank Stone, the father, was released when testimony brought out that the mother did all the punishing.

Neighbors of Mrs. Stone from the Loma Alta colony, sixteen miles north of here, told the jury that Mrs. Stone, who is the oldest daughter, refused to help her mother with the washing. Mrs. Stone tied her to a radiator with a rope and told her she had to stand on tip toes in order not to be strangled. Other witnesses testified that the woman beat her children with sticks.

The District Attorney did not ask for severe punishment, as he said he believed the woman was mentally immature.

Helen Wills Beats Molla Mallory, 6-0, 6-1

TAKES TWO-SET WIN OVER RIVAL

California Girl in Finals With Kitty Godfree

Allows Molla Mallory Lone Game in Fast Match

English Woman Winner Over Elizabeth Ryan

BECKENHAM (Eng.) June 10. (P.) Helen Wills, whose play in the Kent county lawn tennis tournament has been a revelation to British critics, today swept through her semifinal match with her noted rival, Mrs. Molla Mallory, in exactly twenty-three minutes, defeating the present American champion, 6-0, 6-1.

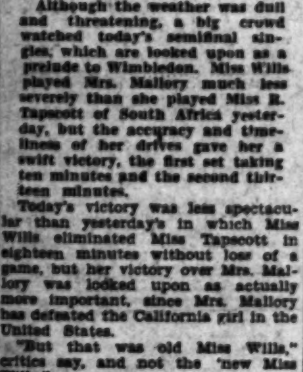

The California girl, who has yet to lose a match in her tennis invasion of the British Isles, will meet Mrs. Kitty McKane Godfree in the final tomorrow. Mrs. Godfree, who won the Wimbledon championship at Wimbledon last year for the second time, today eliminated Elizabeth Ryan of California, 2-6, 6-2, and expects to look forward to tomorrow's match with eagerness.

Although the weather was dull and threatening, a big crowd watched today's semifinal singles, which are looked upon as a prelude to Wimbledon. Miss Wills played Mrs. Mallory much less severely than she played Miss R. Tapscott of South Africa yesterday, but the accuracy and fluidity of her drive gave her a swift victory, the first set taking ten minutes and the second thirteen minutes.

Today's victory was less spectacular than yesterday's in which Miss Wills eliminated Miss Tapscott in eighteen minutes without loss of a game, but her victory over Mrs. Mallory was looked upon as actually more important, since Mrs. Mallory has defeated the California girl in the United States.

"But that was old Miss Wills," critics say, and not the "new Miss Wills."

Mrs. Godfree was none too steady in her match against Miss Ryan, who played in the first style. The English woman lost the first set, but recovered and finished the match at the top of her game.

RARIN' TO GO!

Here's Sam Parriat of Puente, with a healthy specimen of gasoline-fed stock. The young "Puentean" is shown negotiating, or rather attempting to climb a steep hill on Baker's ranch. The bulky piece of machinery has thrown the rider, but Samuel is not to be denied and grasps his mount firmly by the "horns" and starts up again. Mister Parriat and many more of his ilk are entered in the motorcycle hill climb to be held at Saugus tomorrow under the auspices of the Los Angeles Motorcycle Club. Cash, glory and liniment await the contestants.

PEGLER PAINED TO LEARN CORRUPTION GNAWING AT FAIR NAME OF WRESTLING

BY WESTBROOK PEGLER

NEW YORK, June 10.—It looks as though the sordid specter of corruption has been gnawing at the fair name of the wrestling game again in Chicago and all over the country are very much distressed by the news.

There has been no crooked wrestling to speak of in these parts for several years because there has been no wrestling to speak of. This may be a rather drastic method but it is almost a sure way to restoring the name of the great sport of wrestling. It was adapted from the strategem used by the congame artists to defeat the honest climbers. Statistics show that porch climbing, once a crowded profession, has become almost a lost art owing to the construction of flat buildings without any porches.

The brave era of crooked wrestling in New York was in the winter of 1919-20, the last season of the long fight against it. It may be recalled that the customers became weary of crooked prize fights and that the Governor abolished the sport for several years. It was realized, however, that to avoid social unrest and that sort of thing, the customers must be provided with some sort of crooked sport in the off-season for racing, so the wrestlers were allowed to do some crooked wrestling and they had a very fine time, too.

The bouts were held in a big hall and the sport pages, with nothing else to print, beyond some midwinter baseball ultimatums and the scores of the Class B squash tournaments, gave much space to crooked wrestling. It appears that the more crooked a wrestling bout appears to be the better it is from the standpoint of the patrons and these were very excellent bouts indeed. There were about six large, portly gentlemen with double chins dangling in descending folds way down to their knees.

SKIFF RACERS PLOT COURSES

Arguments Wax Hot in Plans for "Rowboat Derby"

Expert Opinion Split Up on Age vs. Youth Battle

Foster Enters Hard and Soft Water Channel Skiffs

BY EDWARD LAWRENCE

Geometrically, the shortest distance between two points is a straight line. Theoretically that may be true, but one out of every two entries in the "skiff derby" has a different idea. If ideas were worth Buffalo nickels, a flock of the oarsmen would retire.

The controversy waxed warm and vigorous this afternoon when the rowing fraternity got together for its daily discussion. Some plan to plot a direct course by the compass, others have charted a "northerly" course to take advantage of favorable currents. The experts who plotted George Young's course were largely responsible for his success and the same thing is apt to be true in tomorrow's race. Those who plan a northerly course hope to strike soft water in the lee of Catalina Island and coast into Avalon on the strong current which runs around the island.

Some of the boats which have been brought up for inspection are worth a snicker. Ingenious builders have constructed skiffs out of every material, including packing boxes, and some of the designs never came out of a naval architect's office. If a number of the more radical skiffs remain all together through the surf it will be a surprise to all concerned.

COMPARE SKIFFS

A couple of grizzled veterans argued heatedly over the merits of a long boat as compared to the qualities of a short boat. The eastern scullers, of a short boat. The eastern scullers, of a short boat. The eastern scullers, of a short boat.

CHICAGO MEET TODAY

Athletes Make Good Marks in Preliminaries and Are All Set for Finals This Afternoon

CHICAGO, June 10. (Exclusive)—The performance of Herman Phillips of Butler University of Indianapolis, who tied his own meet record of 48.7-10s. for the quarter-mile run, featured the preliminaries in the sixth annual individual track-and-field championships of the National Collegiate A.A. held today on Soldier Field in Grant Park. Finals in all events will be held at the same place tomorrow afternoon, starting at 2 o'clock.

Phillips, who has been one of the ships which carried him over the line as the winner in the Western Conference championships, Butler of Geneva College of Beaver Falls, Pa., took the second heat in the quarter-mile. His time was one tenth of a second slower than that of Phillips. If these two winners are not interfered with in tomorrow's finals, the meet record should be shattered.

Butler also qualified for the finals in the 100-yard dash. The Geneva College star won his heat in 9.8", the same as Cockrell of Texas and Almerman of Michigan State. Indications are this will be a close race and the winner may equal or break the record of 9.6", made by Hubbard of Michigan in 1925. Mester of Michigan, victor in the century at the Big Ten championships, failed to qualify. He hoped a shelling.

Adams won all but the third, fifth and ninth rounds, which went to the Glendale scrapper. Hoppe won the ninth chiefly because he dropped Adams to his knees with a terrific left hook. Johnny bounced right up again without taking a count and continued in his task of handing Hoppe a shelling.

Adams weighed 143 1-4 pounds.

GOLDEN BEAR OARSMEN TO START EAST TODAY

BERKELEY, June 10. (Exclusive)—The natives are beginning to get excited as the time swiftly approaches for the departure tomorrow of the University of California oarsmen for the national intercollegiate rowing championships on the Hudson River at Poughkeepsie.

Golden Bear rowers have left for the title regatta in past years, so the excitement is not due to the novelty of the event. In fact, the Californians placed second to the formidable Navy varsity shell in 1921, the last great Blue and Gold crew, exclusive of this year's. All the enthusiasm and bustle are due, however, to the critics' selection of California as a quite serious possibility for first honors in both varsity and junior varsity competition.

Captain E. Bright's varsity boat first presented a powerful front in the dual race with Washington University, when a five-year winning streak on the "Hawkeye" part was shattered to the four winds by a stinging several-length California victory. From that dismal day (in consideration of both weather and Coach Russ Cullow's feelings) California's rowing stock climbed to unparalleled heights. The pure muscle of the Golden Bear big boys was enough to win them respect from the country's

MISHKIN JOINS SEALS AT ONCE

Occidental College Star to Make Pro Debut With Club Here Next Week

SAN FRANCISCO, June 10. (P.) George A. Futnam, secretary of the San Francisco Seals, announced today that Mollie Mishkin, Occidental College star, would join the club in Los Angeles next week and begin playing first base at once. Mishkin, who was put under contract last season by the Seals, has made a remarkable baseball career at college and is expected to fill in as a regular easily. He has just graduated from Occidental.

ADAMS IS VICTOR IN HOPPE GO

Johnny Wins Decisively in Ten-Round Ring Soiree at Hollywood Stadium

Johnny Adams, the San Bernardino Bearcat, fighting for the first time in local rings as a welterweight and displaying the same dash that made him the terror of Coast lightweights ranks some two years ago, dealt out a decisive licking to Dick Hoppe in the ten-round main event at the Hollywood Legion Stadium last night.

Adams, jabbing, hooking and punching hard, won seven of the ten rounds from Hoppe and had Dick in a wobbly and battered condition when the bout ended. Hoppe was bleeding badly about the mouth and there was no questioning that Adams gave him the worst pasting that he has ever received in local rings.

Adams won all but the third, fifth and ninth rounds, which went to the Glendale scrapper. Hoppe won the ninth chiefly because he dropped Adams to his knees with a terrific left hook. Johnny bounced right up again without taking a count and continued in his task of handing Hoppe a shelling.

Adams weighed 143 1-4 pounds.

YANK STADIUM SCENE OF BOUT

Tex Rickard Plans Fifteen Round Elimination Go

Winner Will Tackle Tunney for Heavyweight Title

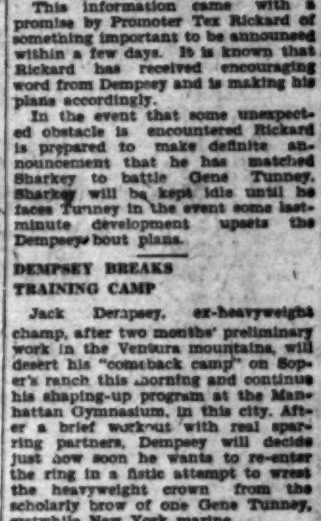

Proposed Championship Tiff Stated for September

NEW YORK, June 10.—Jack Dempsey will return to the ring against Jack Sharkey in a fifteen-round battle at the Yankee Stadium on the night of July 21, unless present plans fail to materialize.

Advices received here today from the Coast where Dempsey has been undergoing a vigorous course of training for the last several weeks contain the information that the fight will be a heavyweight championship tiff which will head eastward within the next fortnight to establish training quarters probably at Tom Luther's Saratoga Lake resort for the Sharkey test. The winner will get the promised title bout in September, probably in Chicago.

This information came with a promise by promoter Tex Rickard of something important to be announced within a few days. It is known that Rickard has received encouraging word from Dempsey and is making his plans accordingly.

In the event that some unexpected obstacle is encountered Rickard is prepared to make definite announcements that he has matched Sharkey to battle Gene Tunney. Sharkey will be kept idle until he faces Tunney in the event some last-minute development upsets the Dempsey bout plans.

The Beavers put on a five-run spurge in the sixth, five hits, a walk and an error by Sanders giving the visitors their quietest of scores and putting them one run in front. Sanders and Peters were the victims of the Portland attack.

Peters retired to let Hube Tarrison strike out for him in the sixth, so that Sanders could pitch the seventh and eighth innings and get the French out against the Beavers. Johnny Cooney came to the rescue of French, who pitched to only two men in the An-

Manager of Title Contenders Arrives from East

Both flyweight and heavyweight titles are expected to fly about town thick and heavy with the arrival of John Buckley today from Boston.

The town that now harbors two of the leading contenders for titles, Buckley is expected to manage both of them. His entries are John Vacca, the boy who twice took Phil Sargeant, and Jack Sharkey, the talking "strong boy" who fights as good as he talks judged by his knockouts of Harry Wills and Jim Maloney.

KLINE WINS IN SQUASH TITLE PLAY

Beats Dave Butler for Low Trophy, Mercury Racket Crown, in Three Games

The J. C. Low trophy emblematic of the squash singles championship of the Los Angeles Athletic Club today was won by the trophy club of Mortimer Kline by virtue of his hard-earned victory yesterday over Dave Butler in the final match of the first squash journey ever staged by the L.A.A.C. Kline won by the score of 15-11, 21-20, 21-18.

Kline got off in the lead in the first game but Butler came out and assumed command of things and won handily. In the second game of the match, Butler seemed destined to repeat his win but Kline with the score standing 10-15 against him, braced and ran his total up to 18. Butler grabbed his twenty-first point and seemed a sure winner when Kline pulled a great "set" that put him in to service. He then proceeded to run out his hand.

The third and deciding game of the match saw Butler tire badly and Kline cut in from behind and was never in danger from his second time in service until he registered his final point.

MUTT FANS RAID POUND

Stray Pups Become Popular as Novel Ascol Program Attracts Record List of Entries

With the announcement of an all-mutt dog show for Southern California, scheduled to be held at Ascol on July 9, city pound officials report a heavy demand for dogs now incarcerated in the pound. It is learned that more than 100 requests were made for a tiny, black mutt, whose picture appeared in the local papers a few days ago.

Although the entry blanks were printed but two days ago, officials in charge of the show report an entry list exceeding 300. In order to give boys and girls the opportunity of obtaining entry blanks, offices at the speedway will be open every day from 9 until 5 o'clock. Entry blanks are urged because of the detail involved in handling the large number of entries anticipated.

This event, probably the biggest of its kind ever held anywhere, and the first to be held in California, is being publicized throughout the South and, according to those in charge, entries from other States are anticipated. It was thought at first that it would be more practical to limit entries from Southern California alone, but officials have decided that any boy or girl in any section of the country may enter a mutt.

In addition to the honors accruing to the "mutt" dogs, very practical prizes in the form of good American money will be given. Boys and girls have the opportunity of winning more than just bones for their mutts, and every boy and girl in Southern California, in particular, is invited to exhibit.

Alkie Akol and George Lopez furnish the feature entertainment at the Main-street Athletic Club tonight.

The Philippine boxer has been made favorite. He has fought most of the leading bantamweights on the Coast, and has defeated a good portion of them, all of which justify him in the favoritism. Lopez, a 105-pound semi-wind-up, which is over Carlo Curtis has arranged, brings together Frankie Forbes and Kid Mack at 140 pounds. Another six-rounder features Henry Valle and Sam Rothstein. Gov. Abelardo Rodriguez recently declared that labor agitation in his district must cease and it was largely through his intercession that yesterday's conference was arranged.

Both employers and employees agreed to abide by a wage scale fixed by a joint board of arbitration several months ago. This scale provides for the payment of 4 paces daily for eight hours' work in the fields, with

NEW YORK BOND PRICES

NEW YORK, June 10. (AP)—With the exception of a few of the recent favorites, which again displayed outstanding strength, price movements were generally toward lower levels in today's curb market. Trading was on a broad scale, but most of the activity was done by a handful of stocks which have been at the center of interest for the past week or so.

Exhibit International was the most conspicuous of the market leaders, selling up over 7 points to a new high of 48 1/2 in anticipation of favorable dividend action. Equitable Office Building became active again, running up nearly 3 points to a new peak. Financial and Industrial securities, which have been steadily slipping, lost ground on profit-taking.

Most of the oil shares gave ground sharply, although Humble Oil, selling at 48 1/2, was only fractionally lower than yesterday's close. Reactions of 1 to 4 points were sustained by Illinois Pipe Line, Prairie Pipe Line and Vacuum Oil.

The issues were again under pressure in consequence of the slump in crude prices, which may result in inventory liquidation. Goodrich lost nearly 4 points and Firestone common went down 2.

Other particularly active issues included United and United Tobacco, Pillsbury Flour, New Jersey Zinc and Tobacco Hill, losses ranging from 3 to 4 points.

NEW YORK CURB STOCKS

NEW YORK, June 10. (AP)—Another large volume of new bond offerings, pouring into the market today, increased pressure against listed securities and prices on the whole settled a little lower. With fresh issues still coming in at a rapid rate, dealers generally look for little change in conditions until the July 1 reinvestment demand begins to make itself felt, when it is hoped that much of the present accumulation may be cleared from dealers' shelves.

Today's listlessness undoubtedly was partly attributable to preholiday hesitancy on the part of many traders in anticipation of an idle Monday during the Lindbergh welcome. Preparation for the payments on the 15th inst. also was instrumental in keeping some traders out of the market.

Convertible issues which were particularly buoyant during the earlier days of the week again turned reactionary today. The "D" 4s were offered in large numbers and dropped more than a point. International Telephone 5 1/2s developed heaviness after an early period of firmness. High-grade issues were practically all steady.

Irregularity characterized the foreign group in which no pronounced movement was noticeable. Italian issues again moved downward for no apparent reason. City of Milan 5 1/2s, in particular, declined sharply.

Second Liberty 4 1/2s were under quiet accumulation and formed up slightly. The time for exchange of these bonds for the new Treasury 3 1/2s may be extended beyond the 15th.

The closing price is quoted when same is at the top, and low and close when same is at the bottom.

NEW AID FOR DAM PROJECT

Crail Expects Flood Situation to Help Measure, Believes Extra Session Will Be Beneficial

The Boulder dam project would benefit greatly from the proposed extra session of Congress, to begin probably early in October, according to Representative Crail.

"Two months extra time will prevent the Boulder dam bill being lost in the confusion which is always present during the closing days of a session, and will make its success more of a certainty," the Congressman said yesterday.

Mississippi flood relief, one of the first matters to which Congress will give its attention when it next convenes, will have a definite and beneficial influence on the Boulder dam project.

"The determination of the nation to bring adequate relief to the flood sufferers will largely work to the advantage of the Boulder dam project because it will bring to the attention of Congress the fact that our water problems must be treated as national problems rather than local issues."

"Congress, and thereby the nation, will realize that the rainwater of Imperial Valley are threatened with a similar flood and that it is the duty of the national government to anticipate and prevent such a disaster. The havoc wrought by the Mississippi flood will help to bring the sympathetic interest of the nation to the flood menace of Imperial Valley."

Because of the nearness of the Presidential election there will be much partisan and political "play" at the next session of Congress, according to Representative Crail. Party leaders will maneuver to gain the advantage for their parties during the entire session and every bit of local news will be considered from a political angle, and in order to avoid the bad effects of this political "play," it is well that Congress should convene two months earlier than usual.

AMERICANS USING MORE VEGETABLES

Rail Men Find Shipment of Green Stuff Doubles; Low Rates Help Factor

Consumption of fruits and vegetables by the American public now is almost twice what it was ten years ago, according to F. E. Scott, assistant freight traffic manager for the Southern Pacific.

In the years 1914 to 1926 the annual average rail shipments of the sixteen principal fruits and vegetables was 646,000 carloads, which was an increase of 77 per cent compared with ten years ago. In contrast with this increase the total population during the period increased only 13 per cent.

"The greatest increase took place in those fruits and vegetables which are highly perishable and have heretofore been largely regarded as luxuries," Scott said. "Lettuce increased 440 per cent; grapes, 216 per cent; grapefruit, 202 per cent; and celery, 188 per cent."

In 1925, Chicago, for instance, received white potatoes from thirty-seven States; sweet potatoes from twenty-two States; lettuce from thirteen States; cantaloupes from fourteen States; and tomatoes from seventeen States. It is certain that agricultural commodities would not show the increased shipments they do were freight rates excessive or out of line with prices received.

PEN POINT

TOM TACKETT might have been a Democrat, but he is not. He is a Republican.

Some of the new-fangled ways and means of doing things are being tried here.

The hard job of "keeping the peace" isn't to keep the peace, but to keep the peace.

Yet the hard part isn't over the Atlantic, but over the Atlantic, but over the Atlantic.

We have the first picture of a man in the history of the world that stopped work on the day.

In the good old days the man got on his knees and prayed for his family.

"Ah!" sighed Alexander, "I am a man of the world, and I am a man of the world."

The measure of a man's worth is the number of times he has been in the hospital.

The inferior man's measure of worth is the number of times he has been in the hospital.

Americanism: Trying to be a man, but not being a man.

Another distinction for the man: He is the first man to announce his candidacy for the office.

No insects can tell the difference between a man and a woman.

There are superior races, but they are superior to the inferior races.

Youth, being carefully trained, is what it ought to be, but it is not.

A missing shirt button means that a man is a man.

Three or four are gone, but the man is still a man.

OUR AMERICAN WAY: The way of the man, the way of the man.

Upward and upward, the man goes, the man goes.

Upward the man goes, the man goes, the man goes.

What are his thoughts as he goes? He is thinking of the man.

Does he breathe a word of praise? He is breathing a word of praise.

Back under the land that he has won, the man goes, the man goes.

Out under the sun, the man goes, the man goes, the man goes.

Hammering of metal, the man goes, the man goes, the man goes.

On, on, through the darkness, the man goes, the man goes, the man goes.

The storm comes to rest, the man goes, the man goes, the man goes.

He is alone with himself, the man goes, the man goes, the man goes.

How the tempests are to be won, the man goes, the man goes, the man goes.

Through the wilderness, the man goes, the man goes, the man goes.

He shall be found, the man goes, the man goes, the man goes.

His faith and hope, the man goes, the man goes, the man goes.

Now over, now under, the man goes, the man goes, the man goes.

Now, the man goes, the man goes, the man goes, the man goes.

In his eyes there is a light, the man goes, the man goes, the man goes.

In his body no longer, the man goes, the man goes, the man goes.

Just high, high and away, the man goes, the man goes, the man goes.

To reach La Belle France, the man goes, the man goes, the man goes.

Young America's best, the man goes, the man goes, the man goes.

An eagle's wing to the West, the man goes, the man goes, the man goes.

Now the dawn, now the dawn, the man goes, the man goes, the man goes.

With her green hills, the man goes, the man goes, the man goes.

New England's best, the man goes, the man goes, the man goes.

There is a heart, there is a heart, the man goes, the man goes, the man goes.

And there is a heart, the man goes, the man goes, the man goes.

New York, La Belle France, the man goes, the man goes, the man goes.

Of the night, the man goes, the man goes, the man goes.

We know how the world has changed, the man goes, the man goes, the man goes.

We know how the world has changed, the man goes, the man goes, the man goes.

But, like a true man, the man goes, the man goes, the man goes.

Counting eagerly back to the day, the man goes, the man goes, the man goes.
